DETECTIVE BRINGS JOY TO A UTAH SALESMAN

Through the persistence of Detective Charles Pincock and the local long distance operator of the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., a three weeks' mystery was closed up this morning by the locating of Charles Kauffman, a salesman, in Salt Lake City.

About three weeks ago, a well-filled suitcase was found by the police at the rear of the Biel Meat Market on lower Twenty-fifth street. Among the contents were a number of valuable papers purporting to belong to Charles Kauffman. The only clue to his address was on the envelope of a letter written to Kauffman by a brother residing in Los Angeles. Detective Pincock wrote to the brother and learned from him that the owner of the suitcase was in Salt Lake City. Yesterday an effort to get him by long distance telephone was started from the Ogden office and about 11 a. m. today the operator notified the detective that she had been successful.

A conversation with Kauffman followed and the officer learned that the suitcase had been stolen from its owner while at the Interurban terminal. He had virtually given up the possibility of finding it and was greatly pleased to learn that it had been found.

JOHN FAULKNER HAS BEEN SENTENCED TO JAIL

He was arrested yesterday with Mike Favero at Twenty-fourth street and Hudson avenue, by Officer T. J. Paine. Favero was also charged with disturbing the peace, but the testimony in the case was to the effect that he had been unexpectedly assaulted by Faulkner and virtually knocked out, though he managed to scuffle to some extent with his assailant while on the ground. The charge against him was dismissed.

lancers, polka, varsoviene, Danish slides, and quadrilles being danced by the older folks while some of the young people enjoyed the new dances in the Maids and Matrons' dance hall, to music of a large Victrola. The grand march with 300 persons in line, occurred early in the evening. Many of the ladies were attired in old-time costumes which were very interesting to the younger folks.

The decorative scheme was effectively carried out in green and white, the lodge colors, in the Royal hall and in the Maids and Matrons' rooms. Under the balcony in the ball room a punch booth had been arranged of green and white crepe paper lattice work with a large American flag draped over the entrance. Streamers of green and white crepe paper formed a canopy over the entire hall, the dining room of the Maids and Matrons' club the tables were beautifully decorated with red candles in white crystal candlesticks. In the center table had been placed a set of attached vases, one large and five small vases, filled with American beauty red roses. Large bows of red and white blue ribbon were placed at corners of the tables where Mrs. S. H. Winter and the following young ladies, in dainty gowns, served ice cream and assorted cakes: Misses Ruth Pardoe, Dorothy Packard, Margaret West, Virginia Stevens, Inez Allen, Alvira Robinson, Edith Hanford and Reia Ensign. The Misses June Gibson and Florence Ensign served punch in the ball room and in the Maids and Matrons' parlors Miss Ruth Winter and Miss Dorothy Holter presided at the punch bowl. In the parlor of the club rooms small American flags were artistically arranged and a large wicker basket of red and white carnations and maiden hair fern graced the center-table.

During the evening prizes were awarded to the oldest pioneer present and a prize was also given to the lady wearing the best costume. Mrs. Martha A. Fern, 80 years of age was awarded the prize as the oldest pioneer present. She came to Utah in 1847. Mrs. Henrietta Griffith won the prize for wearing the oldest costume, having a dress eighty years old and a bonnet sixty years old. The Mesdames Ezra Rih, Chris Brown and A. P. Hibbs comprised a committee and awarded the prizes. Following are the names of those attending a general committee in charge of all arrangements for the delightful event: Mesdames Josephine West, Feltha Ensign, Eliza W. Childs, Mary Felt Parker, Elizabeth Tracy, Charlotte Critchlow Stahr, Martha Burton, Cooley, Kite Farley Sobel, Miriam Tracy, Mary Bell Newman, Sarah Jane White, Clara Suedaker, Mercy R. Stevens, Roxana Farr Pidd, Mary Helen Malone, Mary Flinders Vance, Mary Browning, Cordelia Reeder, Mary Jensen, Stephens, Kate Toponce, Helen Emmett Greenwell, Mattie Rushton Read, Martha Lewis Ritter, Laura Moeck Jenkins, Bertha Hatch Harris. These ladies, with members of the general board, also acted as a reception committee. Altogether the affair was a complete success.

WILL DANCE IN NEW HALL. When the Dee-Eccles building on Twenty-fourth street is completed, the local postoffice clerks will give their annual grand ball to which the Salt Lake and other postoffice employees of the state will be invited. Elaborate preparations are being made and the event promises to be the most delightful one ever given by the post-office employees.

THEATER PARTY AND LUNCHEON. The Chl Rue club members were guests of Miss Henrietta Meyer last Monday evening in Salt Lake City. The girls were entertained at a theater party at the Orpheum, after which a prettily appointed luncheon was served them on the balcony at Franklin's. The table was especially prettily with a large vase of carnations as the central decorative piece. Red, white and blue miniature hatchets were used as place cards and the refreshments were suggestive of Washington's birthday.

The following club members present were: Misses Marie Farrell, Madeline Lauson, Marie Sanford, Norma White, Ardell Browning, Emer

Sanford, Henrietta Meyer, Irene Paine, Mrs. G. E. Yarrington, and Mrs. Austin P. Sooy.

FEDERATED W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon the Federated W. C. T. ANNUAL MEETING OF THE DAUGHTERS OF PIONEERS. The Weber county Daughters of Pioneers held their annual meeting yesterday at 2 p. m. in the Fifth ward meeting house. President Mary Richards called the meeting to order, after which everyone joined in singing "O Ye Mountains High," with Mrs. Mary Jones leading. Mrs. Morris, as chaplain, gave the prayer, after which Mrs. Richards made a welcoming speech. Mrs. Fred G. Clark sang a solo, "Our Western Home," composed by Evan Stephens of Salt Lake City. Mrs. Dora Holther read the minutes of the last annual meeting, after which Mrs. Rintia Douglas, treasurer, read a report of the year's work which proved very interesting. Mrs. Leonora Pardoe of the relic department gave an especially interesting talk, stating that 207 relics had been turned in during the year, among them being a box containing locks of hair of both Joseph and Hyrum Smith, and their mother. Portraits of the first twelve apostles were also among the many interesting articles received.

The corresponding secretary, Miss Rae Middleton, read a report of the biographical sketches which have been given her, as registrar, during the year. After March 1 Mrs. Elmore Wetherston will act as registrar for all biographical sketches. Mrs. Laura Moeck Jenkins gave an excellent report of company Q of Plain City which now has twenty-seven members and has held five meetings.

A violin and piano duet by the Misses Cleone and Oertel Rich was a pleasant feature after which Mrs. Cartwright of Salt Lake gave a congratulatory speech. Mrs. Cartwright complimented the Weber county Daughters of Pioneers on their splendid work in all departments and was pleased to notice that members of the organization were faithful in observing the fifth commandment. The Salt Lake lady also spoke on the beauties of Ogden, saying that she was agreeably surprised at the many lovely homes in the residence portion of the city, this being her first visit when she had sufficient time to see other than the business section.

Mrs. Mary Ritter followed with a report of company P of Riverdale. Twenty-five members are registered in this company and several biographical sketches have been sent to Salt Lake where, with many others, they are being prepared for a history which will be published in the near future. President John Watson, the only gentleman present, spoke on the financial conditions of the order and complimented the ladies on their excellent work. Mrs. Violet Nebeker Denion of Salt Lake was a visitor and she spoke of her appreciation of the privilege of visiting Ogden and the local organization. Mrs. Denion urged the ladies to gather all data possible from the pioneers now living and to write what they could remember of their parents' lives.

Mrs. Alvin Rich then gave a short talk and invited those present to attend the annual ball given at the Maids and Matrons' club rooms and Royal academy last evening. A duet by the Misses Rich was followed by the closing prayer by Mrs. Morris. The meeting was pronounced a complete success.

known issues, but soon falling back on moderate offerings. Traders seemed loath to make new commitments over the week end in view of the foreign situation. Amalgamated Copper was the only speculative leader to manifest marked strength, advancing a point. The Pacifics and Grangers were barely steady. The closing was firm. Bonds were irregular.

CHICAGO GRAIN. Chicago, Feb. 27.—More of a friendly feeling toward the buying side of wheat was manifest today. Failure of Liverpool quotations to reflect fully the decline yesterday on this side of the Atlantic tended to encourage the bulls. Active demand for spot cash delivery had an additional strengthening influence on futures. After opening 1-4 down to 3-4c up, prices here advanced all around, July leading with a rise 2c above last night but later reacting 1c.

Options that long delays might be expected in opening the Dardanelles stopped a large extent today the talk of unlimited wheat shipments soon past Constantinople. The close here was strong at 2 1-2 to 4 1-4c net advance.

Rains and snows in the west likely to diminish corn receipts and to increase feeding acted later as a prop to the market. The close was strong 2 1-4 to 2 1-2@2 5-8c net higher.
